Sir.

Being advised to ask your opinion concerning a piece of United States Currancy it is about the size of the present small 5ct piece. It is in as good condition as a piece made the present year and it is dated 1800. I wanted to know if you had such a coin in your collection or if its of any value. It was found by the Bell Telephone men about 8 foot under ground at the Independant square. Not being able to come up myself in person i ask your opion in
